Pearl Hacks

a hackathon for college and high school women interested in technology

Come to Pearl Hacks, this March 22-23 at UNC Chapel Hill! Register today at www.pearlhacks.com

We are bringing together 200 girls from Virginia and North Carolina universities and high schools to meet engineers from Google, Palantir, SparkFun, Square and many other tech companies for a one-of-a-kind event.

Meet friendly people, connect with awesome employers, win fun prizes and build a completely new and revolutionary project!
